

What event am I?

The worst in our history.
Christmas '41 was 36 days away.
A disguised raider did the damage.
Hidden from the public for some time by a Curtin.
645 of ours and 80 of theirs perished.
What was the raider?
What was the victim?

Answer _____

Who am I?

A suffragette from the west.
I have a Uni and an Electorate named in my honour.
You won't find me on a 10, 20 or 100.
But you will on a ?
I was first to parliament.

Answer _____

Where am I?

I was once named after one of my country's most famous leaders. I was the site of one of the bloodiest eastern front battles of WW2. Hitler's German army regretted ever trying to visit me. Today my new name sounds as though I am rather uncouth, but in fact I am named after the river that flows by me.

Answer _____

Who am I?

My first name is also that of a port in Tasmania's south.
Plenty of English visitors got a free ticket to here in the 1800s.
My surname is the same as the first name of the current Royal Consort to Queen Elizabeth II.
I was a very prominent First Fleeter.

Answer _____

What am I?

An explosive expedition, filled with 1 on the periodic table, Captain Pruss at the helm. The last of my kind. What was I, What was my name?

Answer _____

What am I?

The British have us, Phidias made us, the Greeks want us back, visitors admire us, these marbles will never roll.

Answer _____

